TO CELEBRATE THE EMANCIPATION.

San Antonio, Texas.—With the advent of spring there comes greater preparation for the celebration of the Emancipation Proclamation. This city has witnessed from time to time some magnificent celebrations. Especially is this true with what is known here as the Nineteenth of June. It was on this day in 1865 that Gen. Granger of the U. S. Army landed at Galveston, Tex., and enforced the Emancipation Proclamation issued by President Lincoln as a result and to keep this green in the memory of the Afro-American citizens young and old, a celebration is carried out with much pomp and ceremony each year in all the leading cities in the state of Texas. San Antonio, however, can boast of forging much ahead of the other cities for the high-class entertainments that it has given from year to year, especially since the younger element with their new ideas has forged to the front. These occasions have been a credit. The recent mass meeting which was called at the Benevolent Hall by Pres. Wm. Dickey made a wise selection of the president. Mr. Franklin Henry Tucker, who has worked in celebrations for the past ten years. He has been identified with such past presidents of celebrations as M. Shelburn, T. J. Dillwood, O. J. Carter and was an active member of the Executive Committee on the three celebrations conducted under the administration of Mr. Henry Allen Boyd. Mrs. Tucker was also a member of the Ladies' Auxiliary and has wonderful ability in organizing. The vice president, Mr. Thomas J. Dillwood, is one of the old guards and will certainly be an invaluable member in the councils of these young men. The second vice president, Mr. Jesse Milton Bumbrey, is known for his tenacity. It was he and his untiring work that contributed so largely to the success of the celebrations of 1901, '02, '03. Mr. Chas. Townsend, the recording secretary, has had but little experience in public life, but associating with the gentlemen above named, he is a good asset. Mr. Gus Johnson, the corresponding secretary, is one of the most popular young men in the city. He has served with Messrs. Bumbrey and Tucker on the previous successful occasions. Prof. J. R. Morris is treasurer. H. W. Hawkins and J. E. Scott, as grand marshals, complete the officers and the Executive Committee. In all probability the celebration will be conducted at the beautiful San Pedro Springs. Limburger's Garden or Riverside Park. Mr. Tucker, it is learned, will at once organize a ladies' auxiliary to the celebration committee.

Those who have sought to disregard the wishes of the majority of the Negroes of San Antonio in calling another meeting aside from the regular one which was called by the retiring president, Wm. Dickey, and which was made permanent by electing Mr. Frank Tucker president and Mr. Gus Johnson secretary of the coming emancipation celebration, will soon find out that it is a hard proposition they have undertaken. The celebration is for the people, and will run by the people. It is not a matter of men whose object is to get a few rods on the occasion, but a matter of professional men—ministers and lawyers—who have something to say about the matter, and those who are on the shady side of life will be forced to look a backward glance.

NOTES OF THE NEGRO EXHIBIT FOR THE JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

The photographic exhibit of the homes owned by Negroes in Tennessee promises to be one of the most interesting and instructive exhibits of the whole exposition. Dr. F. G. Smith, the special Agent for the exhibit, is working very hard on this particular feature. He thinks that the homes of a people reflect their advancement in education, their health, their civilization, and their progress. He is now busy making photographs of these residences. In addition to the photographic exhibit, there will be a large and elaborate exhibit of the homes of the colored people. This self-explanatory exhibit will be a most valuable one, and will show the progress of the colored people in Tennessee. It will show the homes of the colored people in various parts of the state, and will show the progress of the colored people in Tennessee. It will show the homes of the colored people in various parts of the state, and will show the progress of the colored people in Tennessee.

Mr. R. R. Carney the fashionable tailor, will also send an exhibit of his handiwork. Mrs. M. C. Jordan, the artist milliner, will send a display of her work. Mrs. M. C. Jordan, the artist milliner, will send a display of her work. Mrs. M. C. Jordan, the artist milliner, will send a display of her work.

Saunders, President, is planning to show to the world what the Nashville colored ladies can do in the way of fine needle work.

The Field Agent requests the Globe to say that the Executive Committee at Washington would like to have these exhibits ready for shipment by April 15th, or as soon thereafter as possible. Other persons intending to exhibit will please communicate with F. G. Smith, the Field Agent for the State of Tennessee.
